POLITICAL SCIENCE

Area F Learning Outcomes

A student who successfully completes the Political Science Area F has made the first important steps down the road that leads to knowing how to think about the nature of the political world, how we have gotten to the current system, how political systems operate, and how to reason critically. The road also leads to the ability to write clearly, concisely, and cogently.

An area F is an introduction to a Bachelor's degree, not a Bachelor's degree. Students who complete the Political Science Area F have only b

III. FOUNDATION COURSES IN POLITICAL SCIENCE	0-9 hours max.
Introduction to Political Science
Introduction to State and Local Government
Introduction to Public Administration
Introduction to Comparative Politics
Introduction to Global Issues
Introduction to Domestic Issues

Each institution may select up to 18 hours from the courses in the three sections, but it should not exceed the number of hours listed for each section. If an institution wishes to use only Section I or any parts of Sections II or III to arrive at the 18 hours, then this is a valid choice.
