- As the previous chair (Nancy Shumaker) has retired, the SCIE needs to elect a new chair to complete the final year of Dr. Shumaker's three-year term. Dr. Neal McCrillis was nominated and elected as Chair.

Linda Noble said those rules are not likely to be changed due to problems uncovered (not in study abroad) several years ago.

- Dlynn Armstrong-Williams stated there are two contract positions for Military International Program Coordinators open at North Georgia College & State University. There is information on the university's web page.
- The Georgia Consortium for International Studies will be held 24 February at Georgia Perimeter College. Information is on the GCIS website (www.gacis.org).

Meeting adjourned at 11:55.
